Message from the President

With half of the TAAP year complete, we are pleased to report that we had another successful poinsettia sale and two informative, fun-filled programming events. Our TAAP delegates and members enjoyed, "First Fridays" at the Guthrie Green in October followed by a special luncheon and tour in November of the awe-inspiring, "Little Light House" school located here in Tulsa. This spring we look forward to our spring recruitment event, Women of the Year luncheon fundraiser and the announcement of our scholarship winners.

On March 9th, along with our TAAP delegates, active members from local sorority chapters, and panhellenic representatives from area universities were on hand during our Spring Recruitment event at the Tulsa Historical Society. This annual event is held to inspire young women into sorority life through the college years and beyond.

Our Women of the Year event theme this year, "Greek Women, Leaders – Past, Present & Future" acknowledges the leadership skills we learned as active sorority members and honors eighteen (18) amazing women whose leadership has shaped our community and continue to make an impact. This is a time to recognize their accomplishments and say thank-you while raising money to support the TAAP philanthropies – college scholarships and the Tulsa Public Schools' eyeglass fund for low-income students. We are so proud of the volunteer and nonprofit support to which all our alumnae contribute as leaders of the community. We hope to see you there at the luncheon to honor our Greek women - past, present and future!

Fraternally,
Lynda Burris Linscott
TAAP President 2013-14
Kappa Alpha Theta

Little Light House Visit

In November, TAAP delegates were treated to lunch and a tour of the Little Light House, a tuition-free, Christian based school for developmentally-disabled children. Founder Marcia Mitchell is an alumna of Pi Beta Phi and past TAAP Women of the Year honoree.

TAAP Officers Lynda Linscott, Katherine Castleberry, and Elaine Hanner are seen here posing with Director of Therapy and Delta Delta Delta alumna Julie Wilson, and Little Light House Founder Marcia Mitchell.
